Dear Alexander,

My passport arrived yesterday and I have a ticket for the voyage on the Queen Mary, Cunard Line, New York to Cherbourg, sailing August 19. I think the ship arrives the 24th or 25th.

I'm writing in English since my French is rather rusty and not very respectable but I hope to learn again. Indeed I've thought that instead of living in an apartment in Bures-sur-Yvette I perhaps should try to find an arrangement to live with a family, pension-style and thus have more opportunities to learn good spoken French.

Also I've thought of doing a little travelling in Europe right after arrival, perhaps of visiting Rome. I think the early time would be the best opportunity.

P.S.: Many many thanks
for all of your help.
J.G.N., Jr.

Very Sincerely,
John H. Nash, Jr.
